

JAGD & HUND

International exhibition for hunting and fishing

JAGD & HUND – Europe's leading meeting place for hunting and angler fishing

What you can expect

The JAGD & HUND Exhibition will once again be opening its doors for a six-day period from 2nd to 7th February 2010. The preceding Exhibition was characterised yet again by new exhibitor and exhibition space records as well as a further increase in internationality regarding both the visitors and the exhibitors.

The JAGD & HUND is a paradise for hunters, anglers and nature-lovers wanting to experience adventure and spend their money, with numerous shows and event areas to round off the programme. Again in 2010 there will be around 650 exhibitors in six exhibition halls presenting their extensive range of products and services to approx. 71,500 visitors. The main scope of choice will focus on:

- Angling accessories
- Angling holidays
- Fishing equipment
- Off-road vehicles
- Hunting gear and clothing
- Hunting lodges
- Hunting holidays
- Hunting weapons

For more detailed information on a visit to the Exhibition or on taking part as an exhibitor please press either the Visitor Button or the Exhibitor Button on the left. Here you can also view the various special shows at the JAGD & HUND 2010.

